DETAILED ACTIONClaim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 27, 29, 30-32 and 38 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Knox (US 6,332,887)

Knox discloses a distractor having a body 204 with a first end member, the body having a passage or channel for moveably receiving a rack 218, a pinion or “driving mechanism” 210 and a spring-biased catch or “lock member” 222 disposed in a chamber in the body, the catch having a pin and a lock member such that the lock member engages the rack in a first position and does not engage the rack in a second position (Figures 5A, 5C and 5D and col. 6, lines 7-21). See marked up Figures 5B and 5C from Knox below.

Art Unit: 3732

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments submitted under "REMARKS," in the response filed on September 27, 2004 with respect to claims 27, 29, 30-32 and 38 are moot in view of the new ground of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 28 and 33-37 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 1-26 and 39-42 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
